

Fourth-grade
Spring Concert
May 23, 2005

To Our Audience

Welcome! We have worked very hard to reach tonight's performance and respectfully request that a quiet and receptive atmosphere be maintained at all times during our concert. Please observe the following rules of proper concert etiquette:

- Please make note of emergency exits.
- There should be no talking during the concert.
- Please refrain from flash photography during the performance.
- Please turn off all cell phones and beepers.
- Smoking is forbidden on school grounds.

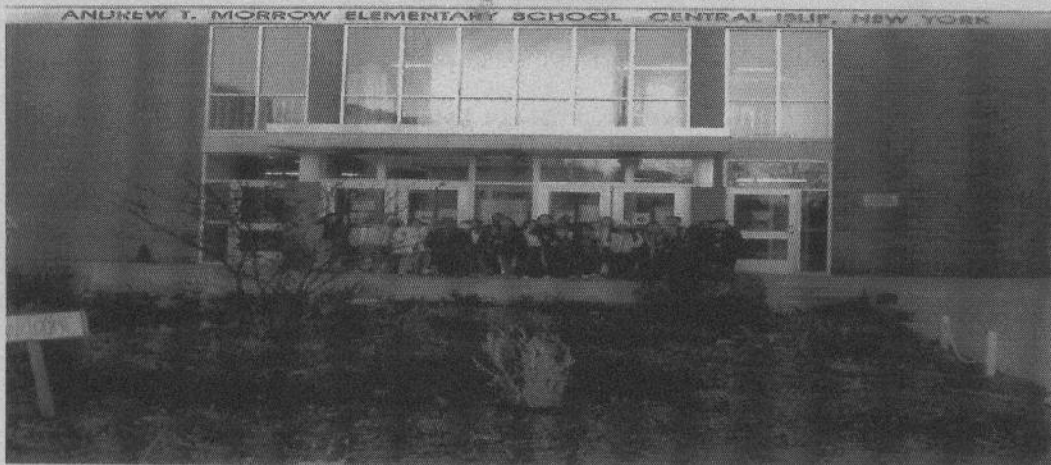

Finally we request that you remain for the entire program so that all of your students may enjoy the privilege of performing for a full audience. Thank you for your cooperation, and enjoy the show.

Bienvenidos a todos

Hemos trabajado fuertemente para alcanzar éxito en esta noche. Por favor le pedimos que mantengan silencio durante el concierto. Sigán las reglas siguientes:

- Fijese en las salidas de emergencia.
- No hable durante el concierto.
- No tome fotografías durante el concierto.
- Favor de apagar los teléfonos celulares y los beepers.
- No se permite fumar en los alrededores y dentro de la escuela.

Finalmente le pedimos que se mantengan sentados durante todo el concierto para que todos gocen de él. Gracias por su cooperación y esperamos que se diviertan.

Acknowledgements

We would like to thank the following administrators, faculty, and staff for their help and cooperation with this year's concert:

- Mr. Nagy for his continuous support of the Music program and students.
- Custodial staff, secretarial staff, and prep room staff for their help in organizing and setting up for tonight's performance.
- Ms. Chandler and students for the beautiful art work that is displayed in the gym.
- Mr. Rivera and Mr. McGuire for the use of their gymnasium.
- Mrs. Hernandez and the Computer Club for preparing this year's program and pictures.
- Mr. Nieves for doing a wonderful job as he kept the chorus singing while Mrs. Majeski was out on maternity leave.
- Parents and teachers for their continued support of the Music program!
